Negative Pressure Wound Therapy

History of Wound Care

NPWT

NPWT (Negative Pressure Wound Therapy) system, with NPWT Device and NPWT Dressing Kit included, is intended to be used to heal the wounds which are hard to heal with standard wound dressings.

Cost-Effectiveness

Compared with traditional wound care treatment, NPWT:

- 1. Accelerates chronic wound healing by 200% to 300%.
- 2. Accelerates acute wound healing by 61%.
- 3. Lowers overall costs by 38% (in the U.S.).

Indications for Use

NPWT can be applied to various types of wounds, such as:

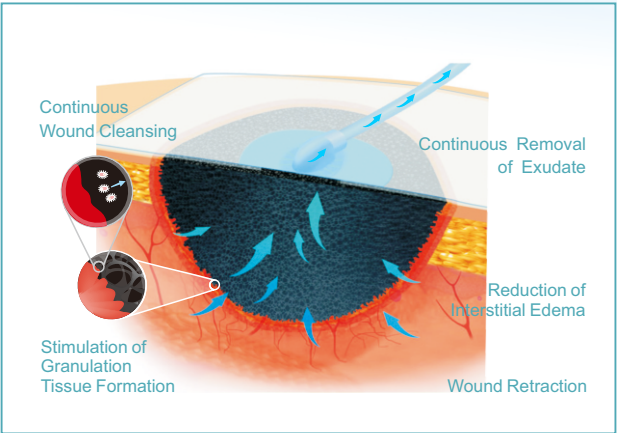

- 1. Chronic wounds (includes diabetic ulcers, pressure injuries, vascular ulcers, etc.)
- 2. Acute, subacute, and dehisced wounds
- 3. Burn wounds
- 4. Trauma-induced wounds
- 5. Surgical wounds (includes abdominal wounds, flaps and grafts, closed surgical incisions, etc.)

Mechanism of NPWT

- 1. Stimulation of Granulation Tissue Formation
- 2. Continuous Wound Cleansing
- 3. Continuous Removal of Exudate
- 4. Reduction of Interstitial Edema
- 5. Wound Retraction

Leading Technology

16 PCT Patents & 40 CN Patents Achieved
Exudate Management Technology (Patented)
Pressure Monitoring & Control (Patented)
Canister Monitoring Technology (Patented)

Reliable Quality

1st US FDA 510(k) Clearance & Site Audit Pass of NPWT in China.
1st NPWT with CE & ISO13485 Certificates in China (by TÜV SÜD).
Key Component Monitoring & Protection (Patented)
Dual Power Technology with Safer Li-Polymer Battery

Better Price-Performance

More Effective Wound Healing
Less Noise to Patients
US & European Union Standard with China Price

4L Health Co., Ltd.

4L Health Co., Ltd. was transformed from the Medical Electronics Business of Foryou Group, which is one of the leading conglomerates engaged in R&D and manufacturing of electronics products in China.

4L Health achieved the 1st CE & ISO13485 Certificates of NPWT system in China (by TÜV SÜD), and obtained the 1st US FDA 510(k) clearance as well as the 1st US FDA site audit pass and re-audit pass of NPWT in China.

As the President Company of HZMD (Huizhou Association of Medical Devices), and a Tsinghua Univ. Alumni Enterprise, with 26 years experiences in medical devices as well as 36 years in electronics systems, and with the world's leading NPWT technology and its IP Portfolio, we are devoted to developing best price-performance NPWT system.

4L: FOR LOVE, FOR LIFE.
FORYOU NPWT, FOR YOUR NPWT.
